Welcome

Join us in Nouakchott in December 2025 for this edition of the International Days of Chemistry (JIC 2025). JICs are unique international chemistry meetings organized by the Mauritanian Chemical Society that address current and emerging topics at the forefront of the chemical sciences.

This meeting is for established and early-career scientists, postgraduate students and researchers working on various aspects of chemistry. It will provide an ideal forum for cross-fertilisation of ideas and understanding between the distinct but adjacent communities working in this exciting field. This year's edition will particularly focus on the public outreach of chemical sciences and their impacts on our lifestyle and development. Topics related to the promotion of chemistry and its applications, as well as their applications in daily life and socio-economic contexts, will be extensively and methodically addressed.

The scientific committee is pleased to strongly encourage presentations in English.

On behalf of the organizing committee, we look forward to welcoming you to Nouakchott, Mauritania.
